

What is the Dodd-Frank Act?

The Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (commonly referred to as the Dodd-Frank Act), was created “to promote the financial stability of the United States by improving accountability and transparency in the financial system, to end “too big to fail”, to protect the American taxpayer by ending bailouts, to protect consumers from abusive financial services, and for other purposes.” (Source: Wikipedia.com)

This informational brochure is provided to you courtesy of Frank's Home Place, Inc., in compliance with the Dodd-Frank Regulations of 2014 which require manufactured and modular home retailers to provide consumers with a list (in alphabetical order) of lenders in the area that will most likely make manufactured or modular home loans. Please direct specific lending questions to your lender of choice.

HOME MORTGAGE LOAN LENDERS LIST

In compliance with the new 2014 Dodd-Frank regulations, Frank's Home Place is happy to provide you with this list of lenders in the area that are most likely to offer financing for manufactured and/or modular homes. Please note this is just a partial listing of available lenders, and not representative of every lender that may offer lending in your area. You are welcome and even encouraged to contact other lenders to compare rates and benefits of various lending options.

This list is for informational purposes only, and not be considered a recommendation of any particular lender, except for the type of financing they offer (chattel or home, land/home). Please direct any specific questions about financing to your lender of choice. The information in this brochure is deemed to be accurate, however, this list may be updated or revised at any time, without prior notice or consent.

Please select the lender(s) from the list that you would like to submit your mortgage application to, and sign below:
